

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Supplies and Parties Covered by the Order

1.1 Supplies. These General Terms and Conditions apply to the purchase of the goods and/or services ("Supplies") identified in a purchase order issued by Hans Power & Water LLC ("Buyer") to the party to provide such Supplies and identified in the PO ("Seller") which references these Terms.

1.2 Parties. The Buyer and Seller are identified on the face of the purchase order.

2. The Terms of the Order

2.1 Terms of the Order. The Order consists of the following, which are sometimes referred to collectively as the Terms of the Order: (i) the purchase order; (ii) Material Releases (as defined in §3.1) issued by Buyer to Seller under the purchase order (iii) these General Terms and Conditions; (iii) all other documents specifically incorporated into or otherwise made a part of this Order by Buyer; and (iv) Buyer's Policies, as revised by Buyer from time to time. The Terms may also include Customer Requirements, as described in §13 and elsewhere in the Order. Customer means any entity to which Buyer, directly or indirectly, sells the Supplies, or sells any goods or services into which the Supplies are incorporated, including any original equipment manufacturer and any upper tier supplier to an original equipment manufacturer.

2.2 Seller Acceptance. The Order is an offer by Buyer to purchase the Supplies from the Seller on the Terms of the Order. The contract is formed when the Seller accepts the offer of the Buyer. This occurs upon the earlier of: (a) the Seller beginning work or performance; or (b) the Seller notifying the Buyer of its acceptance of the offer. The Order is limited to and conditional upon Seller's acceptance of these General Terms and Conditions exclusively.

2.3 Seller's Terms Rejected. The Order does not constitute an acceptance of any offer or proposal made by Seller, and Seller acknowledges that: (i) a request for quotation or similar document issued by Buyer is not an offer by Buyer; and (ii) any response by Seller to a request for quotation or similar document issued by Buyer is not an offer by Seller. Any additional or different terms proposed by Seller, whether in Seller's quotation, acknowledgement, invoice or otherwise, are unacceptable to Buyer, are expressly rejected by Buyer, and are not part of the Order. However, additional or different terms proposed by Seller shall not operate as a rejection of this Order if Seller commences work or otherwise accepts Buyer's offer, in which case this Order shall be deemed accepted by Seller without any additional or different terms or variations whatsoever. Any reference in this Order to any prior communication by Seller is solely to incorporate the description or specifications of the Supplies in such prior communication, but only to the extent that such description or specifications are not directly in conflict with the description and specifications in this Order. If this Order is found to be an acceptance of any prior offer or proposal by Seller, such acceptance shall be limited to the Terms of the Order.

2.4 Entire Agreement. The Order is the entire agreement between the parties respecting the Supplies and when accepted, supersedes any prior agreements, negotiations or understandings of the parties respecting the Supplies, whether written or oral. No modification shall be effective unless in writing and signed by Buyer's authorized representative. The Order may be modified only by a writing signed by Buyer.

3. Quantity; Blanket Orders; Material Releases

3.1 Releases. Unless specified differently in the Order, Seller shall deliver Supplies in strict conformance with the dates, times, quantities and delivery locations determined by Buyer and identified as firm orders in material authorization releases, manifests, broadcasts or similar releases ("Material Releases"). Time, quantities and location are of the essence under the Order and Seller agrees to 100% on-time delivery of the quantities and at the times specified by Buyer. Seller shall not make any commitments for raw materials or other inventory or manufacture any Supplies in advance of the time necessary to meet Buyer's delivery requirements. Buyer is not required to purchase Supplies exclusively from Seller unless the Order expressly states that it is exclusive, 100% requirements, or similar term.

3.2 Blanket Orders. If the Order does not specify a quantity, states zero, "blanket," "per release" or similar term, the Order is a Blanket Order. If the Order is a Blanket Order, then for consideration of $10.00 to be paid by Buyer following expiration or termination of the Order, Seller grants to Buyer an irrevocable option during the term of the Order to purchase Supplies in such quantities specified in Material Releases that are transmitted to Seller during the term of the Order, provided that the Buyer may purchase no less than a minimum quantity of at least one piece or unit of each of the Supplies and no more than 100% of Buyer's requirements for the Supplies.

3.3 Forecasts. Seller acknowledges that any estimates or forecasts of production volumes or length of program, whether from Buyer or its Customer, are subject to change from time to time and shall not be binding upon Buyer. Seller bears all risks with respect to such changes.

3.4 EDI. Buyer may require Seller to participate in electronic data interchange or similar inventory management program, at Seller's expense, for notification of Material Releases, shipping confirmation and other information.

4. Shipping and Delivery

Seller will properly pack, mark, and ship Supplies (and provide related documentation) according to the requirements of Buyer, the involved carriers and the country of destination. Seller will promptly provide Buyer with, in the form requested by Buyer, the identity and amount of all ingredients (and any changes in the ingredients) of the Supplies.

4.2 Delay in Delivery. If Seller, for any reason, does not comply with Buyer's delivery schedule or any other requirement of a Material Release, Buyer may, in its sole discretion: (a) approve a revised delivery schedule; (b) require expedited or premium shipment of any of the Supplies; or (c) cover, and adjust any quantity requirement under the Order accordingly. Seller shall be liable for all excess costs and for all other direct, consequential, and incidental damages incurred by Buyer as a result of Seller's failure including: (i) additional transportation costs; (ii) the cost of any production disruption; (iii) the cost of obtaining goods from an alternate source. Buyer's rights under this section are at Seller's sole expense, at Buyer's sole discretion and in addition to and without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to Buyer.

4.3 Title and Risk of Loss.

4.3.1 Except for Tooling, Buyer shall take title to all Supplies upon the earlier of: (i) delivery and acceptance of the Supplies at Buyer's plant; or (ii) payment by Buyer of all or part of the purchase price of identified Supplies. Supplies shall be deemed identified upon fabrication, unless the Supplies are part of Seller's standard stock and sold to persons in addition to Buyer, in which case identification occurs when the Supplies are marked or otherwise designated by Seller as relating to the Order.

4.3.2 If the Supplies are Tooling, Buyer shall take title upon fabrication or acquisition by the Seller, regardless of payment. Tooling includes fixtures, gauges, jigs, patterns, castings, cavity dies and molds, with all related software, appurtenances, accessions, and accessories.

Upon request, Seller shall promptly furnish to Buyer all certificates of origin or domestic value-added and all other information relating to the costs and places of origin of the Supplies as may be required by Buyer to comply fully with all customs, tariffs and other applicable Laws (as defined in §24). Seller shall comply with all such Laws and warrants that any such information that is supplied to Buyer is true and that all sales covered by the Order will be made at not less than fair value under the anti-dumping laws of the countries to which the Supplies are exported.

4.5 Hazardous Materials. Seller agrees to comply with all Laws, as defined below, relating to any hazardous or restricted material that is an ingredient or part of the Supplies. Seller will give Buyer sufficient warning in writing (including appropriate labels, containers, and packing, and handling, disposal and recycling instructions, material safety data sheets and certificates of analysis) of any such materials

5. Price and Payment

5.1 Price. The purchase price of the Supplies is set forth on the face of the purchase order. The Supplier warrants that the prices for the Supplies sold to Seller are no less favorable than those that the Supplier currently extends to any other Customer for the same or similar Supplies in similar quantities. If the Supplier reduces its prices to third parties during the term of the purchase order for the Supplies, the Supplier will correspondingly reduce the prices charged to Seller.

5.5 Set Off. In addition to any right of setoff or recoupment provided by law, Buyer shall be entitled at any time to set off or recoup against sums payable by Buyer to Seller or any of its affiliates any amounts for which the Buyer determines in good faith the Seller or any of its affiliates is liable to it under any Order or other agreements with the Seller or any of its affiliates. The Buyer may do so without notice to the Seller.

5.6 Payment Not Acceptance. Payment for Supplies shall not constitute acceptance of non-conforming Supplies, nor will it limit or affect any rights or remedies of Buyer.

5.7 Credits. Credits or benefits resulting from the Order, including trade credits, export credits or the refund of duties, taxes, or fees, belong to Buyer. Seller will provide all information and certificates (including NAFTA Certificates of Origin) necessary to permit Buyer (or its Customers) to receive these benefits or credits.

6. Non-Conforming Supplies

6.1 Rejection. If defective or non-conforming Supplies are rejected by Buyer, the quantities under the Order will be reduced unless Buyer otherwise notifies Seller, and Seller will not replace reduced quantities without a new Material Release from Buyer. Seller will also participate in Buyer's supplier quality and development programs as directed by Buyer. For Supplies used in motor vehicle manufacturing, Seller agrees to meet the full requirements of industry Production Part Approval Processes ("PPAP") as specified by Buyer and (as applicable) Customer(s) and agrees to present this information to Buyer upon request, at the level requested. 11.3 To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Seller's obligation under this Section will apply even as to Losses caused in whole or in part by an Indemnified Party's negligence, but Seller's indemnification shall not apply to the extent that Losses resulted solely and directly from the negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party. Seller's obligation to defend and indemnify under this Section will also apply regardless of whether the claim arises in tort, negligence, contract, warranty, strict liability or otherwise. The indemnification obligation under this Section shall not be limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable by or for the benefit of Seller under Workers' Compensation Acts, occupational disease acts, disability benefits acts or other employee benefits acts.

12. Inspection and Audit

12.1 Inspection of Facility. Buyer may enter Seller's facility at any time to inspect the facility, Supplies, materials, and any of Buyer's property related to the Order. Upon reasonable notice to Seller, either Buyer or its Customers (or a third party designee) may audit Seller's production facility, Supplies and any other Buyer property (including all pertinent documents, data and other information) related to the Order at the facility for the purpose of verifying Seller's costs and its compliance with its obligations under the Order. 12.4 Buyer's right to conduct any inspection, audit or review under this section or otherwise is at its sole discretion. Buyer has no obligation to Seller to conduct any inspection, audit or review and Buyer's decisions as to whether, how and when to conduct any inspection, audit or review does not modify or relieve Seller of any obligations under the Order, does not give rise to any liability of Buyer to Seller and is without prejudice to any rights or remedies available to Buyer.

13. Customer Requirements

13.1 In the event that Buyer's Customer files or has filed against it a petition in bankruptcy or insolvency and, in the course of such proceeding, Buyer permits a reduction in the price(s) paid to Buyer for products incorporating the Supplies, the price paid to Seller for the Supplies from and after the date of such reduction will be automatically adjusted proportionally by the same percentage as the price paid to Buyer by its Customer, and the Order will otherwise remain in effect without modification.

13.2 If Buyer's Customer directed, recommended, requested, suggested or otherwise identified Seller as a source of the Supplies: (a) Buyer will pay Seller for the Supplies only following and to the extent of Buyer's actual receipt of payment from that Customer for those goods in which the specific Supplies are incorporated; (b) within three business days of any change in price, specifications or other terms negotiated or proposed between Seller and the Customer, Seller will notify buyer in writing and will immediately adjust its invoices to reflect any price reduction, provided that no change will be binding on Buyer without Buyer's specific written consent.

Termination by Buyer shall not relieve Seller of any liability under the Order.

14.3 Termination by Seller. The Seller may terminate this agreement only for non-payment of the purchase price for Supplies which are thirty or more days past due and material in amount, and then only if: (i) Seller first provides Buyer written notice specifying the amounts past due and Seller's intent to terminate the Order if the past due amount is not paid; and (ii) Buyer, within 60 days of such notice, does not either: (x) pay the past due amounts; or (y) notify Seller that the amount claimed to be unpaid are disputed by Buyer. 14.4.4 take actions reasonably necessary to protect property in Seller's possession in which Buyer has an interest until disposal instruction from Buyer has been received.

14.5 Buyer's Obligations Following Termination. Subject to §14.7.2, Buyer shall pay to Seller in connection with Termination only the following amounts, without duplication, in complete and final satisfaction of any liabilities relating to this Order:

14.5.1 The purchase price for all conforming Supplies received by Buyer prior to Notice of Termination or delivered following Notice of Termination pursuant to §14.4.1, §14.8 or at the written direction of Buyer;

14.5.2 Any amounts owed for Transition Support pursuant to §14.8.3; and

14.6 Buyer's Obligations Following Expiration. If the Order expires, Buyer shall pay to Seller, in complete and final satisfaction of any liabilities relating to the Order, only the purchase price for all conforming Supplies received by Buyer prior to expiration and, if applicable, any amounts owed for Transition Support pursuant to §14.8.3.

14.7 Limitations on Buyer's Obligations Following Termination or Expiration

14.7.1 Buyer's obligations under §14.5 are conditioned upon Seller's furnishing to Buyer, within one month after the date of termination (or such shorter period as may be required by its Customer), a termination claim, which will consist exclusively of the items of Buyer's obligation to Seller that are expressly permitted by this Section. Buyer may audit Seller's records before or after payment to verify amounts requested in Seller's termination claim.

14.7.2 Buyer shall not be obligated to make any payment for Supplies, work-in-process, parts or raw materials inventory: (i) in excess of those authorized or required under any Material Release, (ii) that are damaged or destroyed or that are not merchantable or useable; (iii) that are in Seller's standard stock or that are readily marketable; or (iv) that can be returned to Seller's suppliers or subcontractors for credit.

14.7.3 In the event of a termination of this Order by Buyer as a result of Buyer ceasing to be a supplier to the Customer for the product in respect of which Buyer issued this Order,

Buyer shall only be obligated to compensate Seller for any costs under §14.5.3 if, when and to the extent that the Customer reimburses Buyer for such costs.

14.7.4 Buyer will have no obligation for and will not be required to pay Seller, directly or on account of claims by Seller's subcontractors, for loss of anticipated profit, failure to realize anticipated production volumes, revenues or savings, unabsorbed overhead, interest on claims, product development and engineering costs, tooling, facilities and equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized capital or depreciation costs, or general administrative burden charges from termination or expiration of the Order, except as otherwise expressly agreed in a separate Order issued by Buyer.

Following expiration or its termination of the Order by either party for any reason (including termination by Seller) and notwithstanding any claimed or actual breach of any obligation by Buyer, Seller will cooperate in the transition of supply to a successor supplier, including the following, which will collectively be referred to as "Transition Support":

14.8.1 Seller will continue production and delivery of all Supplies as ordered by Buyer, at the prices and other terms stated in the Order, without premium or other condition, during the entire period reasonably needed by Buyer to complete the transition to the alternate supplier(s), such that Seller's action or inaction causes no interruption in Buyer's ability to obtain Supplies as needed;

14.8.2 at no cost to Buyer, Seller will promptly provide all requested information and documentation regarding and access to Seller's manufacturing process, including on-site inspections, bill-of-material data, tooling and process detail and samples of Supplies and components; and

If the transition occurs for reasons other than Seller's termination for Default, Buyer will, at the end of the transition period, pay the reasonable, actual cost of the assistance under this §14.8.3, provided that Seller has advised Buyer prior to incurring such amounts of its estimate of such costs. If the parties disagree on the cost of Transition Support, Buyer will pay the agreed portion to Seller without prejudice to Seller's right to seek to recover any disputed amounts.

15.1.1 Supplies, as provided in §4.3, together with materials and components incorporated or to be incorporated in the Supplies;

The Seller will cooperate with the Buyer and will provide Buyer with access to all facilities at which Buyer's Property is located. Seller expressly waives any right to additional notice or process relating to Buyer's exercise of its rights under this Section. Seller waives, to the extent permitted by law: (i) any lien or other rights that Seller might otherwise have on any of Buyer's Property, including but not limited to molder's and builder's liens; and (ii) any objection to the Buyer's repossession and removal of Buyer's Property for any or no reason, including bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings.

16. Seller's Property

16.1 All Tooling and other items that are not Buyer's Property and that are necessary for the production of Supplies are Seller's Property.

16.2 Seller, at its expense, will furnish, keep in good working condition capable of producing Supplies meeting all applicable specifications, and replace when necessary, all Seller's Property. Seller will insure Seller's Property with full fire and extended coverage insurance for its replacement value. If Seller uses Seller's Property to produce goods or services similar to Supplies for other customers, including aftermarket customers, such goods or services will not incorporate any of Buyer's logos, trademarks, tradenames or part numbers. Seller will not disclose or imply in its marketing efforts that such goods or services are equivalent to those purchased by Buyer.

16.3 Seller grants to Buyer an irrevocable option to take possession of and title to Seller's Property that is special for the production of Supplies under the Order upon payment to Seller of its net book value less any amounts that Buyer has previously paid to Seller for the cost of such items. This option does not apply if Seller's Property is used to produce goods that are the standard stock of Seller or if a substantial quantity of like goods are being sold by Seller to others.

17. Tooling

17.1 Seller shall not purchase any Tooling for the account of Buyer or charge Buyer for any tooling except as authorized in an Order.

17.2 If Buyer has agreed to compensate Seller for Tooling:

17.2.1 The price for Tooling set forth in the Order will be adjusted to credit Buyer in the amount, if any, by which the price exceeds Seller's actual cost as verified. If Seller does not provide such access and documentation, Buyer may determine in its reasonable discretion an appropriate adjustment. Seller will retain all cost records for a period of two years after receiving final payment of the charges. Seller will provide to Buyer, as requested, access to Seller's premises and all documentation relating to the Tooling prior and subsequent to payment, to inspect work performed and to verify charges submitted by Seller against the Order.

17.2.2 The Seller shall be entitled to receive payment only after it is completed. Tooling is not complete until Seller, at its own expense, has successfully completed all required testing (including, for Tooling used in connection with motor vehicle parts production, completion of the PPAP process) and has submitted all necessary documentation.

17.2.3 Seller shall be entitled to receive payment only after and to the extent of, and in proportion to, Buyer's actual receipt of such reimbursement or other payment from the Customer.

17.3 If Seller is responsible for fabricating or acquiring Tooling, such Tooling shall: (i) comply with any specifications provided by Buyer (or, where directed by Buyer, those of its Customer); (ii) be capable of producing Supplies that satisfy the Order, including meeting any volume requirements or estimates provided to Seller during the life of the product as well as satisfying the requirements for Service Parts. Time is of the essence for Seller's acquisition or fabrication of Tooling. Seller shall provide Tooling progress reports on Buyer's request and shall promptly notify Buyer in writing if it believes that the Tooling might not be completed by the completion date specified on the Order.

17.4 If all or part of the fabrication, modification, repair or refurbishment of Tooling will be subcontracted to a third-party toolmaker, the Seller will: (a) give Buyer advance written notice of the identity of the toolmaker and the location of the Tooling; (b) inform the toolmaker in writing that it is a bailee-at-will, through the Seller, of Tooling owned by the Buyer; and (c) be solely responsible for payments to the toolmaker. The Buyer has no obligation to the Seller or subcontractor other than payment to the Seller of the Order price. If a subcontractor brings an action against the Seller for payment of the Tooling, the Seller will not join the Buyer in the action.

17.5 If the Seller intends to subcontract all or part of the manufacture of the Supplies to a third-party subcontractor and to locate Tooling on the subcontractor's premises, the Seller will: (a) provide the Buyer with written notice of the identity of the subcontractor and the location of the Tooling; (b) obtain the written permission of the Buyer in advance of the Seller's doing so; (c) inform the subcontractor in writing that it is a bailee-at-will, through the Seller, of Tooling owned by the Buyer; and (d) be solely responsible for payments to the subcontractor.

18. Intellectual Property

18.1 Seller warrants that the Supplies and the sale and/or use thereof (before or after incorporation into products during manufacture) do not and will not infringe any Intellectual Property Rights. Intellectual Property Right means any right arising under U.S. or foreign law relating to patent, trademark, copyright, moral, industrial design right or trade secrets.

18.2 If Seller, or any person employed by or working under the direction of Seller, in the performance of the Order conceives or first reduces to practice: (i) any invention or any experimental, development or research activities, including engineering related thereto, whether or not patentable, (ii) any reduction to practice of any subject matter, application or discovery which could be patented or copyrighted, or (iii) any improvement in the design of the Supplies or any alternative or improved method of accomplishing the objectives of this Order (collectively, Inventions), such Inventions shall be owned by Buyer and be deemed confidential and proprietary property of Buyer, whether such Inventions or any portions thereof can be copyrighted or patented or not. Seller shall immediately disclose all Inventions to Buyer and shall cooperate (and cause its employees to cooperate) in executing any documents and taking any other actions necessary or convenient to patent, copyright, assign to the Buyer or otherwise perfect or protect such Inventions for the benefit of Buyer.

18.3 Seller shall not manufacture or provide, or offer to manufacture or provide, any goods or services that are based in whole or in part upon Inventions, confidential or proprietary information of Buyer or intellectual property of Buyer, whether for its own purposes (other than to satisfy its obligations under this Order), for the Customer or any other third parties, without Buyer's prior written consent.

18.4 Seller hereby grants to Buyer, its subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective successors and assigns, and Buyer hereby accepts, a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid up worldwide license, including the right to sublicense to others in connection with providing the Supplies to Buyer or the Customer, under: (i) any Intellectual Property Rights owned or controlled by Seller or its affiliates, and relating to the Supplies, to make, have made, repair, reconstruct, rebuild, relocate, use, sell and import the Supplies, and (ii) any works of authorship fixed in any tangible medium of expression (including drawings, prints, manuals and specifications) furnished by Seller in the course of Seller's activity under this Order, to reproduce, distribute and display such works and to prepare derivative works based thereon, subject to the other provisions of this Order (all items in clauses (i) and (ii) above, collectively, "Seller's Intellectual Property", and such license in respect thereof, the "License"). Seller acknowledges and understands that the License shall be effective from the first date of delivery of the Supplies under this Order and extend for so long as Buyer has contractual obligations to the Customer. The License is intended to be subject to 11 U.S.C. Section 365(n), as an executory agreement under which Buyer has license rights to Seller's Intellectual Property, and is supplementary to any other rights of Buyer under this Order and any other agreement with Seller.

18.5 Seller will ensure that the terms of its contracts with its subcontractors and employees are consistent with the terms of this Section.

19. Proprietary Information

19.1 Any information or knowledge which Buyer may have disclosed or may hereafter disclose to Seller in connection with this Order (including but not limited to the Terms of the Order) and any and all services to be rendered and/or work to be performed pursuant to this Order is and shall be deemed confidential and proprietary information of Buyer. Seller shall not, without authorization in writing from Buyer, use (except as necessary to the performance of the Order), communicate or disclose the confidential and proprietary information of Buyer or use such information for any purpose other than to perform its obligations under the Order. Seller agrees to safeguard the confidential and proprietary information of Buyer by using reasonable efforts, consistent with those used in the protection of its own proprietary information of a similar nature, to prevent its disclosure to third parties. Seller agrees to cause its employees, "contractors", officers, directors, agents and representatives to be bound by and comply with the foregoing restrictions regarding the use or disclosure of such confidential and proprietary information. Seller further agrees not to assert any claims with respect to any technical information which Seller shall have disclosed or may hereafter disclose to Buyer in connection with the Supplies.

19.2 The restrictions and obligations of §19.1 will not apply to information that: (a) is already publicly known at the time of its disclosure by Buyer; (b) after disclosure by Buyer becomes publicly known through no fault of Seller; or (c) Seller can establish by written documentation was properly in its possession prior to disclosure by Buyer or was independently developed by Seller without use of or reference to Buyer's information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms, any confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement between the parties that predates the Order will remain in effect except as expressly modified by the Order, and to the extent of a conflict between the express terms of such an agreement and this Section, the terms of that agreement will control.

19.3 All documents containing proprietary information relating to the Supplies produced or acquired by Seller under an Order will belong to Buyer. All drawings, know-how, and confidential information supplied to Seller by Buyer and all rights therein will remain the property of Buyer and will be kept confidential by Seller in accordance with Section 28(a) above.

19.4 Seller shall, within five (5) business days of Buyer's request or the expiration or termination of this Order, return all confidential and proprietary information (including all copies, notes and/or extracts thereof).

20. Insurance; Waiver of Liens

20.1 Seller agrees to furnish to Buyer promptly upon request a certificate from its insurance brokers or agent showing that it carries adequate Workers' Compensation, and Comprehensive General Liability insurance coverage, including Contractual Liability insurance applicable to this Order. The certificate must show the amount of coverage, policy number, and date of expiration and must require the broker or agent to give Buyer thirty (30) days prior written notice of any lapse or cancellation of any policy. Buyer shall also be shown as an Additional Insured on the Comprehensive General Liability policy reflected on the certificate of insurance if services are to be performed on Buyer's premises. If Seller is self-insured for Workers Compensation coverage, it will, if requested by Buyer, provide the applicable state certificate establishing such status to Buyer. Seller hereby waives all mechanics' liens and claims and agrees that none shall be filed or maintained against Buyer's premises on account of any Supplies and shall cause all its subcontractors, materialmen and suppliers (and subcontractors of such parties) to provide similar waivers and agreements in form satisfactory to Buyer.

21. Excusable Delay

21.1 Any delay or failure of either party to perform its obligations will be excused if and to the extent that the party is unable to perform due to an event or occurrence beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, such as: acts of God; restrictions, prohibitions, priorities or allocations imposed or actions taken by a governmental authority; embargoes; fires; explosions; natural disasters; riots; wars; sabotage; or court injunction or order (collectively "Excusable Delay"). However, in no event will the Seller's performance be excused by: (i) the change in cost or availability of materials, components or services based on market conditions, supplier actions, labor disruptions or contract disputes; (ii) Seller's financial distress; or (iii) any labor strike or other labor disruption applicable to Seller or to any of its subcontractors or suppliers.

21.2 Seller shall immediately give written notice to Buyer of any event or occurrence that threatens to delay or actually delays Seller's performance under this Order. Such notice shall include all relevant information with respect to such threat, including the possible duration and impact of a delay. In addition, Seller will notify Buyer in writing: (i) at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of any labor contract or collective agreement; and (ii) as soon as Seller becomes aware of any actual or threatened labor strike or other labor disruption; in each case as may be applicable to Seller or to any of its subcontractors or suppliers that are engaged in manufacturing or providing goods or services to Seller in connection with Seller's obligations under this Order.

21.3 Seller, at its expense, shall use its best efforts to mitigate any adverse effects or costs to Buyer due to any actual or potential delay, including: (i) the implementation of a production contingency plan; and (ii) upon Buyer's express written authorization, increasing Seller's inventory of Supplies to a level sufficient to sustain deliveries during such delay.

21.4 During any delay or failure to perform by Seller, Buyer may at its option and at Seller's expense: (a) purchase Supplies from other sources and reduce its schedules to Seller by such quantities, without liability to Seller; (b) require Seller to deliver to Buyer at Buyer's expense all finished goods, work in process and parts and materials produced or acquired for work under the Order; or (c) have Seller provide Supplies from other sources in quantities and at a time requested by Buyer and at the price set forth in the Order. In addition, Seller at its expense will take all necessary actions to ensure the supply of Supplies to Buyer for a period of at least 30 days during any anticipated labor disruption or resulting from the expiration of Seller's labor contracts.

22. Buyer's Liability

22.1 Buyer's sole liability under the Order (including its termination, expiration or cancellation) is to pay for the Supplies in accordance with §4.4 and to pay the specific termination related amounts described in §§14.5 and 14.8.

22.2 In no event shall Buyer be liable for anticipated profits, interest, penalties or incidental, consequential, punitive, multiple, or exemplary damages or liabilities in connection with this Order, whether for breach of contract, late payment, property damage, personal injury, illness, or death or otherwise.

23. Limitation on Assignment and Subcontracting

23.1 This Order is issued to the Seller, in reliance upon its personal performance of the duties imposed. Without prior written consent of the Buyer, Seller may not: (i) assign this Order or delegate the performance of its duties hereunder; or (ii) assign any accounts receivable from Buyer to third parties.

23.2 Seller will ensure that the terms of its contracts with its sub-suppliers and sub-contractors provide Buyer and the Customer with all of the rights specified in this Order, including but not limited to §§12, 13, 14.4, 14.8, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19

23.3 Any subcontracting, assignment or delegation does not relieve Seller of any responsibility under this Order.

24. Compliance with Laws

24.1 Seller agrees to comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, ordinances or other requirements of any national, state, provincial, local, multi-national or international body (collectively "Laws") relating to the manufacture, sale, delivery and use of the Supplies. Upon request, Seller will submit to Buyer evidence of such compliance.

25. Special Situations

25.1 In addition to its indemnity obligations under §11.1.7, if Seller performs any work on Buyer's or Customer's premises or utilizes the property of Buyer or its Customer, whether on or off Buyer's or Customer's premises, (i) Seller will examine the premises to determine whether they are safe for the requested services and will advise Buyer promptly of any situation it deems to be unsafe; (ii) Seller's employees, contractors, and agents will comply with all regulations that apply to the premises and may be removed from Buyer's premises at Buyer's discretion; and (iii) Seller's employees, contractors, and agents will not possess, use, sell, transfer or be under the influence of alcohol or unauthorized, illegal, or controlled drugs or substances on the premises.

25.2 If the Order includes the removal, moving or installation of production equipment, the following clauses apply:

25.2.1 Seller agrees that it has inspected the equipment and the site from which it is to be removed or where it will be installed, and that the price includes everything necessary to complete the work, including without limitation the cost of providing access and egress, relocating other equipment, power lines and other utilities, preparing a proper foundation to receive the machinery, and all special permits and equipment required to accomplish the move. If any of the foregoing are to be furnished by Buyer, such items shall have been clearly and specifically identified on the face of the Order. With respect to items or services furnished by Buyer, including without limitation foundations or lifting or moving equipment, Seller agrees to inspect same before use thereof and to be fully and completely responsible for the adequacy thereof.

25.2.2 Seller or its mover shall provide insurance against any harm to Buyer or its employees, Sellers or the mover's employees, or the public arising out of its activities hereunder. The minimum combined single limit of such insurance is to be $5,000,000, written by an insurer reasonably acceptable to Buyer. In addition, Seller shall maintain Broad Form Property Damage Liability insurance covering the activities described in this paragraph. All policies shall name Buyer as an additional insured.

26. Remedies

26.1 The rights and remedies reserved to Buyer in the Order will be cumulative with and in addition to all other legal or equitable remedies.

26.2 In any action brought by Buyer to enforce Seller's obligations in connection with the production or delivery of Supplies or transition support, or for possession of property, the parties agree that Buyer does not have an adequate remedy at law and Buyer is entitled to an immediate order for specific performance of Seller's obligations (including related temporary and preliminary injunctive relief).

26.3 Buyer shall recover actual and reasonable attorneys fees (including the cost of in-house counsel) in any action arising out of this Order, unless Seller is the prevailing party.

27. Miscellaneous

27.1 Jurisdiction and Applicable Law.

27.1.1 If the location of Buyer from which this Order issued is in the United States of America: (i) this Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the State of Michigan and of the United States of America, exclusive of the choice of law rules thereof; and (ii) the state courts presiding in Oakland County, Michigan or the federal courts in the Eastern District of Michigan shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over any lawsuit arising out of or related to this Order.

27.1.2 If the location of Buyer from which this Order issued is in Canada: (i) this Order shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the local, domestic laws of the Province of Ontario and of Canada, exclusive of the choice of law rules thereof; and (ii) the federal or provincial courts presiding in the location from which the Order is issued shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over any lawsuit arising out of or related to this Order.

27.1.3 Seller irrevocably waives and agrees not to raise any objection it might now or hereafter have to any such claim or proceeding in any court having jurisdiction under this Section, including any objection that the place where such court is located in an inconvenient forum or that there is any other claim or proceeding in any other place relating in whole or in part to the same subject matter.

27.1.4 The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Supplies shall not apply to this Order.

27.2 Waiver. Either party's failure to insist on the performance by the other party of any term or failure to exercise any right or remedy reserved in this Order, or either party's waiver of any breach or default hereunder by the other party shall not, thereafter, waive any other terms, conditions, rights, remedies, breaches or defaults, whether of the same or a similar type or not.

27.3 Severability. If any provision of this Order, or portion of any provision, is declared or found to be unenforceable, the balance of this Order or such provision shall be interpreted and enforced to the greatest extent possible as if the unenforceable provision or portion had never been a part hereof. In particular, if any interest rate provided for herein is higher than that permitted by applicable law it shall automatically be amended to the highest legal rate.

27.4 Survival. The obligations of Seller to Buyer survive termination of the Order, except as otherwise provided in the Order.

27.5 Interpretation. No provision may be construed against the Buyer as the drafting party. Section headings are for convenience or reference only, and do not effect the meaning of the Order.

27.6 No Publicity. Seller will not advertise, publish or disclose to any third party (other than to Seller's professional advisors on a confidential and need-to-know basis) in any manner the fact that Seller has contracted to furnish Buyer the Supplies covered by the Order or any terms of the Order (including prices), or use any trademarks or trade names of Buyer in any press release, advertising or promotional materials, without first obtaining Buyer's written consent.

27.7 Relationship of Parties. Seller and Buyer are independent contracting parties and nothing in the Order will make either party the employee, agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose. The Order does not grant either party any authority to assume or to create any obligation on behalf of or in the name of the other. Seller will be solely responsible for all employment and income taxes, insurance premiums, charges and other expenses it incurs in connection with its performance of the Order, except as expressly provided in a written agreement signed by Buyer. All employees and agents of Seller or its respective contractors are employees or agents solely of Seller or such contractors, and not of Buyer, and are not entitled to employee benefits or other rights accorded to Buyer's employees. Buyer is not responsible for any obligation with respect to employees or agents of Seller or its contractors.

27.8 Conflict of Interest. Seller represents and warrants that its performance of the Order will not in any way conflict with any continuing interests or obligations of Seller or its employees or contractors. Seller further warrants that while the Order is in effect, Seller and those of its employees and contractors participating in the performance of the Order will refrain from any activities which could reasonably be expected to present a conflict of interest with respect to Seller's relationship with Buyer or its performance of the Order.

28. Certain Obligations of the Parties.

28.1 Recall. If Buyer is required to initiate, or otherwise in its discretion decides to initiate, a recall, withdrawal or correction (collectively, a "Recall") of the Supplies or any goods in or on which the Supplies are used, Buyer will notify Seller and provide a copy of its proposal with respect to such Recall for Seller's review prior to Buyer's initiation of the Recall. If Buyer independently believes that a Recall may be necessary or appropriate, it must notify Seller who shall fully cooperate with the Recall. Buyer will be responsible for all Recall activities with respect to Recall. Seller will reasonably cooperate with Buyer in connection with any Recall. Each party will maintain complete and accurate Recall records for any periods that are required by any Law. The fees, costs and expenses of any Recall will be borne by Buyer unless any part of the Recall relates to any of Seller's services, activities, or material omissions, of the Seller.

28.2 Regulatory Compliance. Seller agrees that the services provided hereunder will be conducted in compliance with Good Clinical Practices, if applicable, current Good Manufacturing Practices, all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including but not limited to the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, and with the standard of care customary in industry. Seller certifies that it has not been debarred by the FDA pursuant to Section (a) or (b) of 21 U.S.C. Section 335a, and that it will not knowingly employ any person or entity that has been so debarred to perform any Services under this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that the other party may respond independently to any regulatory correspondence or inquiry in which such party or its affiliates is named. Buyer may review and approve Seller's response with respect to Buyer or the Supplies. Each Party, however, shall: (a) notify the other Party promptly of any FDA or other governmental or regulatory inspection or inquiry concerning the Supplies and such inspection or inquiry relates to or affects any such services provided hereunder, including but not limited to, inspections of investigational sites or laboratories; (b) forward to the other party copies of any correspondence from any regulatory or governmental agency relating to the Supplies, including, but not limited to, FDA Form 483 notices, and FDA refusal to file, rejection or warning letters, even if they do not specifically mention the other party; and, (c) obtain the written consent of the other party, which will not unreasonably be withheld, before referring to the other party or any of its affiliates in any regulatory correspondence. Where reasonably practicable, each party will be given the opportunity to have a representative present during an FDA or regulatory inspection. Each party, however, acknowledges that it may not direct the manner in which the other party fulfills its obligations to permit inspection by governmental entities. Each party agrees that, during an inspection by the FDA or other regulatory authority concerning the Supplies or in which Seller is providing services, it will not disclose information and materials that are not required to be disclosed to such agency, without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld.
